DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of 1953, wish to dedicate our annual to the Armed Forces of the United States in appreciation of their giving their time and lives to help defend our free country from the Communist forces. We can never put into words the way we feel toward them, but we do want them to know we remember and are very thankful for all they've done and will continue to do for us and for a free world.

CLASS HISTORY

Our class of thirty-six began their freshman year on September 6, 1949, under the leadership of Mr. Ammerman and Miss Wineman. We organized our class with William Flick, President; Shirley Ray, Vice President; Virginia Foster, Secretary; and Mary McGrady, Treasurer.

After a three months vacation we returned on September 5, 1950 as Sophomores, and found we had lost one of our fellow students but had also gained one.

Under the supervision of Mr. Maxwell and Mr. McCandless, we elected the same officers that we had the year before. We also sponsored the "Sophomore Hop" and loaned the basketball team seven players and two girls as cheerleaders.

Having been granted a vacation of three months we returned as Juniors. We elected the following officers: Robert Cousins, President; Shirley Ray, Vice President; Patricia Harmon, Secretary; and Shirley Bowser as Treasurer.

During the year we sponsored the Junior Play, "Young Doctor Young and the Junior-Senior Prom."

On September 2, 1952, we began the last mile of our long journey.

We elected Donald McCue, President; Martha Bowser, Vice President; Shirley Bowser, Treasurer; and Patricia Harmon, Secretary.

We now had twenty-seven members remaining. During the year we lost three, leaving us twenty-four.

We sponsored the play, "The Monkey's Uncle," and were honored by the Junior-Senior Prom.

As we twenty-five members of this class say farewell on May 28, 1953, to our teachers as well as our friends, we wish to thank them for their interest, understanding and friendship that they have given us during the years we have known them.

We each member goes on to his chosen field we wish him success and that his days at Worthington High will always be remembered.

PROPHECY

It was a beautiful spring day in April of 1961. A restless feeling took possession of me and I decided to take a trip to New York City. I wanted to see the many wonderful things spring offered there, and also to visit my old friends.

On arriving in early afternoon I learned the opera "Springtime" starring my old friend, Virginia Foster, was playing and none other than the world celebrated pianist, Helen Renwick was furnishing the music. Truly the multi-millionaire, oil magnet of the South West, George Bowser, now owner of the M. O. Co, had done well to book two such note worthies for one opera. I decided to attend the opera.

As I was leaving the main corridor of the large opera house, I met two old friends, Shirley Bowser now Mrs. Robert Shearer and her husband, who were honeymooning in N. Y. C. A little chat ended in a dinner engagement at a fashionable French night club where we were astonished to find John Tancabel, not only present but proprietor. Don Vensel's world famous orchestra's soft music gave the place an air of pleasantness, and to our delight, the poised and artistic dancer, Pat Harmon was there to please us with the newest and best in the graces of the dance, having just completed a European tour.

When I returned to my hotel suite that evening I was greeted by Robert Cousins, owner of the hotel, who asked me if I would like to have a newspaper. He said there were several articles about my old school friends which might interest me. I thanked him and went to my room to browse over the newspaper, -- "The New York Tribune."

The next morning I was pleased to dine with the dietician of the Cousin's Hotel, Esther Brotzman. The food was excellent but the reminiscing was even more enjoyable.

I left my car at the garage where Adilo Unterschuerz, the new mechanic there and an old friend of mine, would give it the 1000 mile check-up that it needed.

Since I'd need to wait for the car, I decided to shop in Gimbels for something new in Easter fashions. The models at Gimbels are always so helpful, and to my surprise and enjoyment one of the models in a beautiful spring suit was none other than the stunning model Shirley Ray, whom I recognized at once.

Our reminiscing seemed to move back the years of time. They, during our impromptu meeting, told me that another of "Our gang" Tom Hawley was making quite a name for himself with the Yankee Baseball League.

That same evening, by chance, I met Margaret Travis, the assistant superintendant of the nurses at Central Hospital. Since she was on her way to the hospital our conversation of necessity had to be quite brief but pleasant.

The taxi that halted to her call bore the name of Louis Claypoole. I recalled a Louis Claypoole in school, and from the hotel cashier, Claire Bundy, I later learned it was my high school classmate who now owned and operated a large fleet of cabs in New York.

Pleased and proud was I to greet Rev. Duane King the next morning as I entered church. It was good to know he had followed his school day choice in careers. It was just as pleasing too, to hear him make fine comments on the work Goldie Crissman was doing in dark Africa as a missionary. "Goldie had the courage to go," he said, "and is still showing that courage."

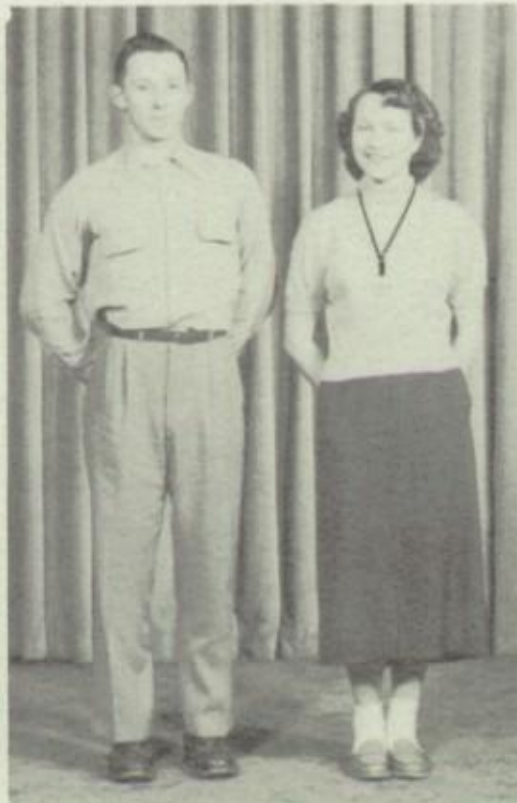

My trip homeward later that day was filled with an air of satisfaction. The trip was a new era for me yet filled with old memories of happy by-gone school days.

CLASS HISTORY – JUNIORS

On September 5, 1950 the class of '54 had their beginning in high school with Mr. Kepple and Mr. Bassett as advisors. The class chose Harold Arner, president; Fred Cousins, vice-president; Eileen Claypoole, secretary; and Rose Marie Bono, treasurer.

This year we had our first experience of sponsoring a party. We picked as our class colors yellow and orchid. Our class motto is: "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

Again on September 4, 1951 we returned with 44 pupils which was less than the year preceding. The same officers were chosen. The class's ambition as Sophomores was sponsoring a Sophomore Hop.

The Junior Class began the new school year with a total of 43 members. The officers elected by the class are as follows: Harold Arner, president; Robert Bundy, vice-president; Helen Anthony, secretary; and Ethel Yockey, treasurer.

Our chief ambitions this year are the sponsoring of the Junior Senior Prom and Banquet, the May Day Dance and Coronation of the King and Queen of the senior class.

The athletes of our class who played baseball this year are: Bob Smith, Wayne Roudybush, Fred Cousins, and Bill Nichol. Our basketball stars are Fred Cousins, Bill Nichol, Denny Weaver, and Roddy Reed.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As the 1952-1953 season opened this year we, the sophomore class, chose Mrs. Mario Chioldi as our class advisor. With her guidance along with the class officers, Ronald Cypher-President, Lyndl Young-Vice President, Catherine Kolar-Secretary, Aina Mangulis-Treasurer, we have succeeded in making this school year a success.

For entertainment, "The Turkey Trot" was given on November 26, 1952 with all the high school students as guests.

Because of everyone's co-operation the class has prospered greatly during their sophomore year.

We are now leaving another year behind us, but hope to be back next year as juniors.
